THE SCOTCH MALT WHISKY SOCIETY (SMWS)

The Scotch Malt Whisky Society (SMWS), founded in Edinburgh in 1983, is a membership organization which bottles and sells single cask, single malt whisky. It purchases individual casks from more than 125 malt whisky distilleries in Scotland throughout the world, bottles them and retails directly to its members. It also runs three private members' rooms in the UK and in several international locations.

The resulting "outturn" of each cask is given a unique, two-part numerical identifier, representing first the originating distillery and second the individual cask from which the bottle was taken. The number of bottles available from each outturn of cask can vary- but single casks by their very nature only produce a limited amount of whisky so, more often than not, there is only a small number of bottles available, making each release and sought-after.

SMWS 3.278

This is a Bowmore with a refill ex-bourbon hogshead whisky under the "Dirty martinis in the boat shed" bottling serie from SMWS. On the nose, candy floss, oyster shells, sea breezes over the machair, boat sheds and woolly socks drying over wood burning stoves. The palate has light heather and lavender smoke, peppercorn heat, liquorice, sticky honey-glaze barbecued stuff and a zing of salt.

SMWS 3.279

This is a Bowmore with a refill ex-bourbon hogshead whisky under the "Evokes Van Gogh's Provence" bottling serie from SMWS. The nose is sweet (clover honey, toffees) and savoury (Chinese ribs, honey-cured bacon), with clams, salty sea breezes and heather moor-burn. The palate has toffee, honey, perfumed smoked and "more lavender than Van Gogh's Provence; Edinburgh Rock and Trebor mint chalkiness.

SMWS 3.297

This is a Bowmore with a refill ex-bourbon hogshead whisky under the "Shrimp a la Plancha" bottling serie from SMWS. On the palate initially like shrimp a la plancha with "Pimenton de la Vera Dulce" (sweet smoked pepper) and garlic oil followed by crispy lobster skewer with green papaya and mint salad. Diluted, like an anise-flavoured liqueur mixed with water or a glass of chilled Pouille Fume wine and to taste a perfect summer fare; roasted mackerels with samphire.

SMWS 7.155

This is a Longmorn with a 2nd fill ex-Sauternes hogshead whisky under the "Making cakes by the crackling fire" bottling serie from SMWS. Candied orange, stone fruits, cape gooseberries, honey, coconut milk and salted butter, nutmeg, aniseed and cloves. The smell was glorious! As the bitter wind blew forest leaves under the door we huddled around the fire with a hot cup of black tea and a block of dark chocolate. After maturing for 24 years in an ex-Bourbon hogshead this whisky was transferred to a 2nd fill ex-Sauternes hogshead for the remainder of its maturation.

SMWS 10.85

This is a Bunnahabhain with a 2nd fill ex-sherry butt whisky under the "Live life on the edge!" bottling serie from SMWS. The flavour is sweet and thick like sponge pudding. Water released the image of horse riding on a beach during a shoer, finishing with a glass of Amontillado.

SMWS 11.31

This is a Tomatin with a 1st fill barrel whisky under the “All toasty and cosy” bottling serie from SMWS. A silky veil sweet of vanilla and butter pastry. Floral honeysuckle and elderflower tantalised and teased before delicately delivering custard creams, candy canes and pink Turkish delight. A citric breeze of kiwi and fresh strawberry passed by perhaps mixed and mashed into a creamy milkshake. Then the dry spiciness of pink peppercorns and sweeter garam masala with turmeric blending perfectly with the woodiness of dry seasoned oak. The finish was rich and long lasting, chewy and pleasing, with a memory of butter on toasted malt loaf.

SMWS 29.188

This is a Laphroaig with a refill ex-bourbon hogshead whisky under the “Cowboy beans” bottling serie from SMWS. Quite rich malty nose with that sweet peat note. Honey, lemon curd, chemical smoke. Hints of new leather pomelo, grapefruit. Bitter wood and dry leaves at first, then a big wave of brine. Long, soapy and salty dried fish. Sweet peat, quite dry.

SMWS 29.200

This is a Laphroaig with a refill ex-bourbon hogshead whisky under the “Smoked Salmon Candy” bottling serie from SMWS. A combination of salmon, salt, maple syrup and hours of smoking created this confection-like treat. Peat smoked scallops with a balsamic glaze. A drop of water and the smoke turned more perfumed. On the palate are rich hemp seed oil but at the same time still that alluring sweet smoke of salmon candy.

SMWS 29.201

This is a Laphroaig with a refill barrel whisky under the “Peat smoked candied Angelica” bottling serie from SMWS. A lovely smoky sweetness on the nose. The taste however was a medicinal peat smoke, ash and tar attack, almost acrid but saved by the dark sweetness of chewy treacle coffee. Water turned the nose into smoked chicken pot pie with a sweet potato crust and the taste will completely transformed; gentle sweet peat smoked candied angelica on a salted chocolate tart.

SMWS 29.205

This is a Laphroaig with a refill barrel whisky under the “Two wheeled beach cruiser” bottling serie from SMWS. The sweet smell of sticky pork ribs on a BBQ hung in the air along with smoked rhubarb crumble with whipped cream and roasted limes.

SMWS 29.208

This is a Laphroaig with a 1st fill American oak Pedro Ximenez hogshead barrel whisky under the “Bonfire on a rocky island shore” bottling serie from SMWS. Delicate smoke and fruit on the nose. Intense smoke and shovel-fulls of cigar ash but intriguing acidic sweetness brought satisfying sapidity to the smoke. The reduced nose found sea breezes, preserved limes, prunes and fig rolls. On the palate lemons on fruits de mer-everlastingly enjoyable.

SMWS 35.158

This is a Glen Moray with a refill ex-bourbon hogshead whisky under the “Curry in a Hurry” bottling serie from SMWS. An initial aroma of newly varnished wood was soon followed by profiteroles with hot chocolate sauce. The taste was that of lentil stew with Peshwari naan bread. Diluted: caramelized onion and apple chutney, and in the finish a mango lassi.

SMWS 50.91

This is a Bladnoch with a refill barrel whisky under the “A Throwback” bottling serie from SMWS. Aromas of strawberry cream candy, pineapple chunks, fuzzy peach candy, caramelized banana ice cream in a chocolate cone. Taste of dark chocolates with a stem ginger centre or a runny sweet and lightly salted caramel core. Diluted we reached for a tangy lemon ice cream with plenty of lemon zest and juice whilst on the palate, a crisp apple dipped in gooey caramel and crunchy rainbow sprinkles.

SMWS 54.45

This is a Aberlour with a 1st fill barrel whisky under the “Drunked Cherry Coconut Ice Cream” bottling serie from SMWS. Juicy fruity on the palate; a tropical fruit salad with chunks of pineapple, mango, kiwi and papaya with the addition of a creamy coconut almond dip!

SMWS 55.41

This is a Royal Brackla with a 2nd fill Sauternes hogshead barrel whisky under the “Soothing and Inviting” bottling serie from SMWS. The nose was invitingly sweet, fruity and juicy. Candied orange and lemon slices, pineapple, apple sour liqueur and candy floss with some sweet Madeira wine depth behind it all. The palate had toffee chocolate éclairs and cinnamon Danish sweetness but with a spritely chilli and popping candy mouth-feel.

THE SINGLE CASK

The Single Cask is a whisky shop, bar and independent bottling company run by Ben Curtis with offices in London and Singapore. The whiskies bottled are all single cask, single malt and grain bottlings at natural strength, which are available to several markets around the world, including the UK, Singapore, Denmark and Taiwan. The independent bottling company was founded in 2010 and initially called Malt Vault, although it began bottling under The Single Cask label at the same time.

American Sour Mash 5 Years Old #311

An independent bottling of 5 years old American sour mash whiskey from an undisclosed distillery in Tennessee, bottles by The Single Cask. 115 bottles were produced. Caramel and sweetcorn with hints of toasty oak and spearmint. Herbaceous as it opens, soon giving way to yet more caramel. White chocolate and cherry drops.

English Whisky Co. 7 Years Old #443

7 years old English whisky from the English Whisky Co., independently bottles by The Single Cask. A small release of only 249 bottles. Thick cut marmalade, peppery oak leading into salted caramel brownies. More vanilla-rich baked goods with a touch of honey in the mix too. Apples and pears covered in toffee.

Tomintoul 22 Years Old 1995 #2156

22 years old single malt from Tomintoul, drawn from a single cask and bottled by The Single Cask! This was distilled in May 1995 and bottled in May 2017 with an outturn of just 264 bottles. Guava, lemon cheesecake, a little whiff of tobacco. Deliciously creamy, with waves of vanilla, sponge cake and butter. Slightly developing hints of brown sugar and black pepper.

EILING LIM

Eiling Lim is the first independent bottler of Scotch whisky in Malaysia, a milestone notched in 2014. Her family name, Lim, is the Mandarin character for woods or forest; when split into two the resulting character is that of wood- the most important element of an exemplary whisky cask.

Eiling Lim Older than Old

The label of this brand-new Eiling Lim release tells us it's "artisan blended malt whisky, older than old and 100% premium quality". We're heard some of the content goes back to the 1970s but remember, officially we can only tell you the youngest component is from the 1990s. Aromatic sherry up front. Fruity with light savoury touches and a pleasant acidity. A little Earl Grey and linseed oil. Chocolate. After a while there's more tobacco, honey coated roasted nuts and a light earthy hint. More plums and sherry, kumquats. Wee touches of herbal liqueurs. Medium long, clean, honeyed and delicately spicy.

Eiling Lim Bessie's Dram

Simple and simply right, a high-end distillate. Clean phenolic smoke, with a pear sweetness behind it, almost mezcal if not for the beach sand, oysters, saltwater and such. Not as medicinal as the double-digit expressions. Lemons and mint. Warm and slightly acrid smoke, phenols, seawater. Less sweet than expected, given its youth. Some burnt grass, ginger, lemon. Quite vibrant. Brine and smoke really, with some earthly notes in the end. Long, briny, smoky, all good.

Eiling Lim Glenrothes 1997/ 2016 19 Years Old

Matured in a 1st-filled Pedro Ximenez sherry cask. A very distinctive dark sherry hue. Aroma of dark chocolate, Rosabaya espresso, balsamic vinegar, soya sauce, raisins, orangette and mandarin. A balance of very dark chocolate, licorice, hints of cedar wood, cinnamon and grapefruits. A long and rich finish, slightly dry with hints of coffee, cocoa and walnuts.

Eiling Lim Tennessee Whisky

The Tennessee Whisky is spelt without an "e" because this distillery by the name of George-Dickel believes that their whisky are of high quality and can be compared to the Scotch whisky! Nice honey and oranges at first, with bright spearmint. Nicely fat, syrupy notes, then also hints of bread. Cherries and sultanas. After a while there's also a highly refreshing citrusy side, say lemon pie. Sweet with more fruity notes before it goes towards more wood and Seville oranges. Dark cocoa powder. Ginger. Hints of eucalyptus tea as well. Deeply charred wood. Fairly long with bittersweet notes, mint and some charred touches.

SINGLE MALT | SCOTLAND, SPEYSIDE

Speyside single malts are single malt Scotch whiskies, distilled in Strathspey, the area around the River Spey in Moray and Badenoch and Strathspey, in northeastern Scotland. Speyside whiskies can generally be classified as light and grassy or rich and sweet.

Balvenie 12 Years Old Double Wood

Grist, supple nuttiness intertwined with spices. Honeyed sultanas and grapes hugely inviting.

Balvenie 14 Years Old Caribbean Cask

The aroma is rich with notes of tropical fruits, namely passion fruit and creamy toffee. Sweet vanilla forms a creamy palate with notes of apples and mangoes with hint of orange in the background. The finish lingers with a vanilla focussed character.

Balvenie 17 Years Old Double Wood

An elegant nose, complex with oak, vanilla, honeyed sweetness and a hint of green apple. Sweet with dried fruits, sherbet spice, toasted almonds and cinnamon, layered with a richness of creamy toffee note, traces of oak and vanilla.

Balvenie 21 Years Old Port Wood

A perfume of fruity and ripe raisin notes, backed by a nutty dryness. Refined with remarkable character, it is creamy and silky with fruit, honey and spice notes. Long, gentle and nutty.

Benriach 16 Years Old

This smooth single malt has an elegant full taste and aroma that captures fruity, floral notes with fascinating overtones of honey, vanilla, spices, toffee and apples. Rounded medium to full bodied.

Benriach 20 Years Old

Big oaky presence, malt and toffee. Warm honey, floral and malty mouthfeel. Long finish, oak, some caramel and cream.

Benriach Limited Release 1996 Single Cask PX Sherry Finish 18 Years Old

Limited to 668 bottles worldwide. A fantastic explosion of fresh citrus zest rolls over richly stewed plums and Demerara sugar. Crisp barley and black pepper fills with a sweet rich warmth.

Benriach Limited Release 1994 Peated/ Oloroso Sherry Wood 20 Years Old

Limited to 678 bottles worldwide. Floods of earthy peat reek combine with classic sherry characters. Rich prunes flow to sweet sundried raisins engulfed in the unique burning heather smokiness.

Chieftain's Glentauchers 2005 11 Years Old

It is light on the nose but spicy on the palate with notes of dried fruit, vanilla and oak. The finish is long, warm and very dry. 100% matured in a first fill sherry cask. Natural cask strength at 63.9% ABV.

Cragganmore 12 Years Old

An aromatic blast of citrus to begin with – orange and lemon oil then soft aromas of toffee, roasted almonds and malted biscuits follow. Very clean and appetising with a gentle floral character. The fresh citrus notes continue on to the palate, joined by sweet toffee, malt and oat biscuits. The gentle malt fades lightly. A wonderful aperitif, this is subtle and moreish.

Glenfarclas 105

Great depth, sherry, creamy and nutty. Honey on toast, touch of smoky coffee. Silky, spicy and peppery oak. Almond, dry and assertive, develops quickly to reveal a rich spiciness combined with a hint of oak and sherried fruit. Amazingly smooth for the strength, wonderfully warming and with a lingering smokiness yet very rounded.

Glenfarclas 15 Years Old

Intense, powerful sherry, cream sherry, complex, deliciously peaty, light butterscotch aromas with a hint of dried fruit. Full bodied with super balance of sherry sweetness, malty tones and peaty flavours. Incredibly long, complex. Long lasting gloriously sherried, sweet , gently smoke and distinguished.

Glenfarclas 17 Years Old

Complex, with distinctive butterscotch, sherried fruit and peat smoke aromas. Big, full-flavoured with excellent balance, develops slowly, full of sherry sweet malty tones and a touch of peat smoke. Long lasting and smooth with a hint of spice and sherry sweetness.

Glenfarclas 21 Years Old

Dark amber gold. Intense, full of aromas. Sherried fruit, tropical fruit, nutmeg and almonds with slight citrus notes at the end, all held together with a vanilla sweet smokiness. Full bodies rich and rounded develops slowly into fruity, smoky and spicy flavours. Long lasting, smooth and an incredibly rounded whisky.

Glenfiddich 12 Years Old

Distinctively fresh and fruity with a hint of pear. Beautifully crafted single malt with a delicately balanced fragrance. Characteristic sweet, fruity notes. Develops into elements of butterscotch, cream, malt and subtle oak flavour.

Glenfiddich 15 Years Old

Intriguingly complex aroma with sweet heather honey and vanilla fudge combined with rich dark fruits. Silky smooth, revealing layers of sherry oak, marzipan, cinnamon and ginger. Full bodied and bursting with flavour. Satisfyingly rich with lingering sweetness.

Glenfiddich 18 Years Old

Remarkably rich aroma with ripe orchard fruit, spiced apple and a robust oakiness. Richly delivers luxurious dried fruit, candy peel and dates overlaid with elegant oak notes.

The Glen Grant 10 Years Old

A huge 95 points from Jim Murray's Whisky Bible in 2013, along with the title of Single Malt of the Year (10 YO & under). Orange and lemon zest, vanilla cream and toffee. Oily with fudge and cream chased by orange, lemon, honeysuckle and sweet apple. Freshly crushed grain, soft apple and a hint of peach.

The Glen Grant 18 Years Old

Jim Murray's Second Finest Whisky in the World, as well as his Scotch Whisky of the Year in his Whisky Bible 2017! Rich and floral with oaky overtones and hints of baking spices. Malty caramel, delicate, dried raisins and vanilla. Long, sweet with hints of nuts and spice.

The Glenlivet 12 Years Old

Sweet creamy vanilla, honey, pineapple, pressed apples and a little cinnamon. Apple cores, fresh and fruity trifle and creamy citrus on the palate with long and delicious, almonds and apple finishing.

Glenrothes 1998

The latest core expression from Glenrothes catalogue, very spicy and creamy with oodles of sweet vanilla, ginger nut biscuits, golden syrup, hints of citrus and malt. Rhubarb crumble with hot custard and hints of black pepper palate. Good length with more vanilla and a suggestion of nutmeg on the tail.

Glenrothes 1995

Buttery toffee apples and hints of allspice. A little milk chocolate, Manuka honey, dates and cinnamon. Creamy malt, sherry and peanut butter on the palate with a long finish with toasted almonds and golden syrup.

Knockando 12 Years Old

The nose is quite gentle and very fragrant. Notes of waxy Manuka honey, hints of malted barley and roots with a touch of cut hay. There is a very supple, chewy peat lying quietly in the background. The palate is quite full with notes of honeyed sweetness with Jamaica ginger cake, a touch of rum with malty peat. The finish is quite long with winter spice and crystallized stem ginger with cereal notes.

Mortlach 18 Years Old

Nutty at first, followed by vibrant spices – think ginger and cinnamon – paired with fresh green apples and lemon zest. The decadent syrup and caramel notes develop on the palate with oak, earthy tobacco and almond adding depth. Citrus, mocha and more tobacco notes last.

The Macallan 12 Years Old Sherry Oak

Vanilla with hints of ginger, dried fruits, sherry sweetness and wood smoke. Deliciously smooth with rich dried fruits and sherry balanced with wood smoke, spice and sweet toffee, lingering wood smoke and spice finish.

The Macallan Classic Cut 2017 Edition

The impact of juicy dark fruits- raisins, sultanas and prunes are less dominant and this lets the other flavour characteristics to show up more. Presence of oak along with vanilla and honey is strong, ginger and nutmeg. Smooth and velvet mouth covering texture, warm red fruit compote covered with caramel. Wood influence is very distinct on the palate. Some fruit zestiness in the form of orange and lemon peels. Medium to long finish, dry oak aftertaste with a spicy touch.

The Macallan 1980s 12 Years Old

Vanilla with hints of ginger, dried fruits, sherry sweetness and wood smoke. Deliciously smooth with rich dried fruits and sherry balanced with wood smoke, spice and sweet toffee, lingering wood smoke and spice finish.

The Macallan 1861 Replica

Potpourri spice card board, flapjack, syrup rosewater, custard. Supplely smooth, very sweet, restrained bitterness, candied orange peel.

The Macallan 1876 Replica Rich in summer fruits, fresh and dried with traces of spice. Light vanilla fudge, sweet oak and wood spice.

Tamdhu 10 Years Old

Dried orange peel, red wine, pecan and raspberry jam. Soft red fruit followed by brown sugar and spicy clove. A touch of chocolate-covered Brazil nut. Crystallized ginger, cacao and juicy blackcurrant.

SINGLE MALT | SCOTLAND, ISLAY

Islay (pronounced “eye-la”) whiskies are among Scotland’s most powerful, thunderous drams. Often with plenty of peat and smoke, brine and medicinal flavours of all the whisky regions of Scotland Islay has attained a truly iconic status.

Ardbeg 10 Years Old

A range of vanilla leads to mountain of peat capped with citrus fruits and circled by clouds of sea spray. Sweet vanilla counterbalanced with lemon and lime followed by that surging Ardbeg smoke that we all know and love. Long and glorious; sea salted caramel and beach bonfire smoke.

Ardbeg 1999 Galileo 12 Years Old

Clear, light coppery amber. Dried apricot fruits with clove infused linseed oil and faint toffee and fudge. Rich, fruity and spicy with just enough dry sandalwood, bitter almond and tea like tannins to add balance and depth.

Ardbeg 1973 Single Bourbon Cask #1146

Aroma is rich and sweet, bursting in flavor. Delicious mixture of custard creams. With water, the aroma becomes immensely creamy, oily and floral. Floral and smoky bringing currants and dates.

Ardbeg 1976 Single Sherry Cask #2396

Hints of marzipan and toasted coconut emerge with a subtle whiff of fresh paint. The perfume of parma violets and jasmine tea emerges with hints of coconut. The taste becomes biscuit with hints of ginger biscuit.

Ardbeg An Oa

Maturation took place in a combination of casks including Pedro Ximenez, charred virgin oak and ex-bourbon! The citrus notes are subtle and rich, coming through as flourless orange cake. Sweet, creamy and offers notes of butterscotch, fennel seed, tobacco leaf, honey nut clusters and hints of mixed boiled sweets. Still plenty of peaty oomph although perhaps lighter in body. Notes of cigars and golden syrup flapjacks with sweet black tea on the tail and hints of chocolate limes.

Ardbeg Ardbog

A limited edition Ardbeg released during the Feis Ile whisky festival. Aged in a combination of bourbon as well as some Manzanilla sherry casks, it was produced for “Ardbog Day”, which was celebrated around the world on 1st June 2013. Sea salt and brine with some dark fruit and hints of barbecue. Maple syrup, plum, orange, mint and more herbal notes with a touch of tomato vine. Big- it feels like all the moisture is being sucked out of your mouth at first but in a good way! Salt crusted raisins, rich nuttiness.

Ardbeg Corryvreckan

Sticking plasters, buttery, creamy, roast chicken crisps, herbal, almost a hint of pine.... Cream, spices, tingling, fresh fruit, medicinal, plasters, orange peels. Salty, smoked meats, peat is fleeting. Astonishing.

Ardbeg Uigeadail

The undiluted nose is deep and rounded- chocolate caramels and barley sugar combine with dates, raisins and smooth sherry notes. Sweet, chewy and oily with a silky mouthfeel. The flavour is initially sweet, revealing fruit cake and treacle. This is followed by barbecued or honey roast food with the slightest hints of olives.

Ardbeg Kildalton 2014 Release

This special limited one-off Ardbeg was released in order to raise money for The Kildalton Project- is an effort to “support” fragile, rural communities’ across the North Highlands. In particular, a good portion of the funds are to be used to restore the St. Columba Village Hall in the distillery’s near-neighbouring village of Port Ellen. Smoky and briny, but soft for a contemporary Ardbeg. Lemon squeezed over oysters on the half shell. A little bit of lime and chocolate too. Quite coastal and oceanic. Good balance of peat and sweet.

Ardbeg 21 Years Old 2016 Edition

This new limited edition Ardbeg Twenty One is a non chilli filtered, matured entirely in 200 litre ex-bourbon casks and bottled at 46% ABV. Old gold on the colour. As expected with an older whisky, the peat isn’t as pronounced. Very coastal at first, with salt-spray and lemon juice. Once that settles there’s a beautiful sweet peat note mixing with the vanilla from the American Oak. Smoked salmon, sage, assam tea, burnt bacon. Gentle but there’s plenty of peppery warmth- either from the peat or the wood, it’s quite tightly bound together. Vanilla returns with a touch of floral honey combined.

Ardbeg Dark Cove

At first meaty, earthy and spicy with bold notes of dark chocolate emerging against orange, treacle toffee, coffee and oak, a smoky background and a mysterious floral note. The mouthfeel is almost tart, with raisins, dates, ginger and pepper spice surge and waves of smouldering charcoal, wood polish and creosote notes, leading to cured smoked ham and squid ink noodles. Long and spicy and rich with notes of toffee, coffee and tar.

Ardbeg Kelpie

Kelpie gets its name from the kelp seaweed found around Islay and is finished in oak from the Adyghe region of Russia near the Black Sea. The nose is peaty and complex with notes of seaweed, brine, dark chocolate, smoked salmon and a hint of honey. The taste is spicy, smoky and pungent with notes of clove, peat smoke, bacon and hints of toffee and dried fruits. The finish is very long and smoky with lingering clove, hints of creosote and touches of caramel and dark chocolate.

Ardbeg Supernova 2015 Release

In case you didn’t know, tubes of “Ardbeg-crafted molecules” that also contained sticks of charred oak was sent to space. The idea was to compare their interactions to those of control samples on earth and the result have now been published. To celebrate the conclusion of Ardbeg’s experiment in space, they released this final Committee release of the super-duper-peated Supernova single malt. At 100PPM compared to Ardbeg’s usual 55PPM, this is one of the most heavily-peated whiskies in the world! Deep with smoked chilli, soot, vanilla, green banana and linseed, tinned nectarines, cocoa and vanilla. Super peaty toffee, crystallised ginger, lime marmalade, star anise, iodine, sweet vanilla and espresso. Candied peels and chilli.

Bowmore 12 Years Old

Coastal smoke and ash soon make way for bergamot, orange zest, lemon slices and some hay before becoming rather floral, heather smoke now competing with the ash. Lovely and rounded, honeyed even, initially. Vanilla, perfumed smoke and coastal elements develop. Dark peat, blossom, oily sweetness. Smoky and long. Sea spray, dry grass, a touch of ash and citrus.

Bowmore 15 Years Old

Dark and punchy. Sherried notes, juicy Corinth raisins. Spices, creamy, mochaccino, sweet dates. Rich, woody, pine oil. Syrupy. Lovely, creamy toffee and malt. Smoky.

Bowmore The Devil's Casks

Corinth raisins, salted caramel, melted chocolate, sticky prunes and flamed orange peel. More sea salt and chocolate, candied peels, rich dark fruits, gentle smoke and spices. Long with complex coffee and cherry notes.

Bowmore 20 Years Old 1996 #13301 Old Malt Cask (Hunter Laing)

Sandalwood, sea breeze and fudge. Lots of fudge again, now with seaweed and dried fruit as companions. Peaty smoke continues.

Bruichladdich Classic Laddie

Elegantly sweet with honeyed barley, boiled sweets and orange petals. Wafts of sea air. Red apples and white grapes with touches of sweet cinnamon and brown sugar. Still softly coastal. Mineral-rich malt, with toffee and more honey.

Bruichladdich Islay Barley 2010

The promised sea breeze is unmistakable, white pepper spice tingles and smooth vanilla and toffee present cautiously. Full and rich buttery goodness facilitates a sharp, malty brown sugar and creamy vanilla custard. A slight oiliness soothes emerging spice. Crisp, summery berries meld with ripe apple and settle with fresh citrus notes that calm the rich palate.

Bruichladdich Port Charlotte Scottish Barley

Master distiller Jim McEwan specially chose the casks that create the Port Charlotte Scottish Barley, which highlight the elegance within this heavily peated single malt. Made with 100% Scottish barley and matured in the village of Port Charlotte.

Bruichladdich Black Art 5.1

Burnished cherry wood; exquisite beading. Essence of dried fruits like fig, dates and apricots. Plum, orange, raspberry and champagne grapes can be detected. Delightfully bitter oak tannin from European "premium" wine casks. Marshmallow nougat.

Bunnahabhain 12 Years Old

This 12 years old is lightly peated, fresh, sweet, seaweed, malt. Soft and supple on the palate. A little sweetness, malty, juicy sultanas. Slightly coastal. Sherried, mochaccino, herbal, balanced salty.

Bunnahabhain 18 Years Old

Salted caramel leading to sticky toffee pudding sprinkled with nutmeg. Dense, rich sherried notes perked up with a coastal saltiness. On a second wave roast chestnuts emerge and gentle wood spice. The finish is warming and lengthy; salt and sherry towards the very end.

Caol Ila 12 Years Old

Fresh, herbal with rubbed peppermint leaves, damp grass, smoky. Oily, cigar leaves, smoked ham. Good body, elegant smoke. Hints of boiled sweets. Long peppery, spicy warmth after finish.

Lagavulin 16 Years Old

Deep amber gold. Intensely flavoured, peat smoke with iodine and seaweed. Deep and rich sweetness.

W H I S K Y

Laphroaig Quarter Cask

Oily and buttery nose with toffee, nuttiness, hickory, bicarbonate of soda, rum and raisin ice-cream and zest. Big rush of sweetness with fiery chilli heat, sweet cereals and a touch of cola syrup. Medium length but becomes fruity with custard and cigar smoke.

Laphroaig Triple Wood

Molasses and oily toffee. Dates, walnuts, notes from the Maker's Mark barrels (vanilla, toastiness, sweetness etc.). Dry and medicinal with exotic spices, perhaps even some turmeric. The palate is surprisingly savoury at first- think musty wood sheds and hints of moist autumnal forest floor. Oaked. The mustiness carries into the finish, which lasts for a good while, with oily spices and dried fruit.

Laphroaig 10 Years Old

This opens on big, smoky muscular peat notes. There are spices and liquorice as well as big dose of salt. Seaweed-led with hints of vanilla ice cream. An upsurge of spices develop- cinnamon, black pepper and chilli. Big and drying as the savoury, tarry notes build up with an iodine complexity.

Laphroaig 10 Years Old Cask Strength Batch #008

Hints of cold wood ash and buttered granary toast with not quite enough honey. A very evocative scent, which gives way to peaches and cream and Lapsang Souchong and allspice. Very robust, and intensely "muscular", this is a real brute, with all kinds of smokiness. It's almost like crunching down on a lump of coal (but one coated in beautifully sweet toffee). Good length, drawn out by the embers on a fire, vanilla, charred bourbon barrels and toffee apples by a fireworks display.

Laphroaig 15 Years Old

Zesty oak and warm peat smoke top notes, with sweet undertones, reminiscent of fresh nutmeg and toasted almonds. Faintly salty, smooth and more elegant elder sibling to the robust 10 years old.

Laphroaig 25 Years Old

Matured in second -fill Oloroso Sherry cask and American oak ex-bourbon barrels for 25 years! Initial sherry sweetness followed by an Islay peat tang. Burst of peat restrained by a sherry sweetness that develops into a spicy apple fruitiness. Very long and slightly dry finish.

Laphroaig 30 Years Old

A synergy of mandarins and mango round up the aromas of burnt almonds and coconut. Peat oils, smelling like cedars, boxberry and smoky sage gives this premium whisky its distinctive and characteristic flavour. A drop of water sets hints of honey and apricot free. Wonderful oily, the aroma of orange peels, vanilla and coriander merges with those wild ginseng and cigar. Long and complex with hints of stone fruits and green, hand-rolled tobacco.

Octomore 07.1

The Octomore 07.1 is a 5 year old single malt Scotch whisky matured in American oak, which has been peated to 208 PPM and bottled at 59.5% ABV.

Octomore 07.2

A Travel Retail bottling of Bruichladdich intensely-peated Octomore single malt Scotch whisky, which weighs in a powerful 208 PPM. For the 07.2 release, this 5 year old whisky combines spirits which were matured in American oak cask as well as casks which previous held Syrah wine, then bottled at 58.5% ABV.

Octomore 07.3

Bruichladdich distillery's range of insanely peated single malts continues with this 63% abv 07.3 release, made with 169 phenolic parts per million. As we've learned, bonkers PPMs don't necessarily mean blow your head off smoke bombs- floral notes and refinement make their way into Octomore releases.

Octomore 07.4

Octomore 07.4 has endured quite an interesting maturation – 25% of it was aged entirely in virgin oak casks, while 75% of it spent 3 years in first filled bourbon casks, followed by 2 years in virgin oak casks and then 2 more years in first filled bourbon cask. Chewy raisins, flamed orange peel, BBQ char and sweet smoke. Intensely oaky. Oodles of peat smoke, carried along by citrus peels, honey and ground spices. A lasting floral sweetness balanced by rich oak warmth.

Port Askaig 100 Proof

Earthy smoke rises first, shortly followed by smoked meats, citrus peels and a heaped spoonful of brown sugar. Zesty lemon and lime, paired with ground cumin and a touch of apple juice. Rather long and enjoyable.

Port Askaig 15 Years Old

Toasted rye bread with blackberry jam, dry smoke and dried earth. Floral malt at first, followed by sherried peels and waves of smoke. Lingering charcoal and a touch of rock pool.

Port Ellen 1982 Silver Seal 20 Years Old

A 1982 vintage Port Ellen from independent bottler Silver Seal, bottled at 20 years of age in November 2002 from a sherry cask. The distillery was sadly closed the year after this was distilled and has gained a cult following since with bottles being in high demand.

Smokehead Rock Edition

A very special, dramatic-looking edition of Smokehead single malt featuring a debossed "Smokehead Skull". Hugely peaty. Smoke, Lapsang souchong. Cool wood smoke. Thick and full. Big, puckering peat. Smoky, fruity sweetness, touch of sherry, sultana. Herbal. Tangy fruits and more peat smoke!

SINGLE MALT | SCOTLAND, HIGHLANDS

As a very vague rule of thumb, the Highlands region is one of big-bodied whiskies, often peated and smoky and powerful. The Highlands is such a large, diverse region that is difficult to categorize their whiskies accurately.

Ardmore Single Malt

A young peat Highlander from the excellent Ardmore Distillery. Creamy peat tang and a touch of vanillas soft gentleness if a touch of water is added the flavours increase with the addition of a sweet ripe fruit start followed by the tars of peat.

Ben Nevis 10 Years Old

Fresh and quite dry. A supple greenness with soft leafy notes with a rich fruitiness. Hints of orange and Seville marmalade with a light vinous character and nutty undertones. Gentle dryness. Toffee. Looming omnipresent are solid peat notes with a bitter sweetness. Silken, toffee and caramel notes balanced with a touch of mochaccino and dark chocolate on the tail.

Clynelish 14 Years Old

A delightfully complex spicy and perfumed nose with some floral and malty hints. The palate is multi-layered too with some slight citrus hints on a honey background with peat and delicious spices before a honey finish with a trace of brine.

Dalmore 12 Years Old

A toasty, coffee-rich dram with beautifully spice notes and a thick mouthfeel. The oily nuttiness in a fine espresso, little notes of malt and cereal and butter. Very rich for a 12 years old.

Dalmore 18 Years Old

Dalmore's stunning 18 years old Highland malt is as rich, fruity and spicy as you could ever want from a Dalmore. It is aged for 14 years in American oak, followed by 3 years in Matusalem sherry butts, before a final year in sherry butts. Fruity and spicy with notes of vanilla, orange zest and potpourri, marmalade and sweet milk chocolate. A touch of leather and sultanas. A delicious fireside dram with notes of chocolate raisins, juicy citrus, stewed fruits, old sherry and pepper. A long, fruity finish ending on almond, buttery toffee apples and cocoa.

Dalmore King Alexander III

A sextuple-wood bottling from Dalmore. This auspiciously-named dram was matured in Wine, Madeira, Sherry, Marsala, Kentucky bourbon and Port casks. King Alexander III is a rich, fruity Highland single malt. Malty and utterly Dalmore. Seville orange zest, Parfait Amour, malty cereal, barley and chocolate. Creamy vanilla fudge, tropical fruit with a vaguely vinous quality. Medium, rounded. Winter berries, spice, zesty orange. Liqueurs emerge; Gran Marnier, kirsch and Frangelico. Peppery with well-integrated oak and the claret makes a last minute appearance.

Deanston 14 Years Old Spanish Oak Cask

Honeyed scent of grapes, candied fruits, light toffee and chestnut cream with the gentlest hint of nutmeg. Rich Spanish brandy and dried fruits with notes of honey, chocolate, oak and allspice.

GlenDronach 15 Years Old Revival

This 15 year old GlenDronach marks the release of whisky under new distillery ownership. Matured in Oloroso sherry casks, this was awarded a Silver Medal at the 2009 Malt Maniacs Awards.

GlenDronach 1993 Cask # 564 23 Years Old

This 23 years old from the GlenDronach distillery was distilled on 5th March 1993 before spending the next 23 years in a single Oloroso sherry butt. Bottled in October 2016, only 575 individually numbered bottles have been produced at a strength of 58.9% abv. A rich cherry wood in colour, the nose opens with chocolate covered raisins and rich prune syrup, with oak spices, cinnamon and black pepper. The palate has stewed barley notes flowing through rich fruit cake with dark chocolate and oak spices adding to the long and warming finish.

GlenDronach 1992 Cask #43 24 Years Old

This 24 years old from the GlenDronach distillery was distilled on 1st May 1992 before spending the next 24 years in a single Oloroso sherry butt. Bottled in November 2016, only 644 individually numbered bottles have been produced at a strength of 52.1% abv. Robust notes of dark roasted coffee beans combined with sherry soaked dark fruits, infused with rich oak spices and a herbal back note. Rich dates and dark prunes spiced with stem ginger and black peppercorns, combined with dark chocolate and hints of tobacco leaves.

Glengoyne 14 Years Old 2001 Small Batch (WM Cadenhead)

This 14 years old Glengoyne, distilled in 2001 and bottled in 2015 as part of the small batch range by WM Cadenhead, one of the oldest independent whisky bottled in Scotland. 612 bottles were produced. Brandy soaked raisins. Vanilla flavoured tobacco and prunes. Quite stunning on the nose. Baked bananas and brown sugar. Light soya sauce and quite meaty. Lots of dark rich honey. The sherry cask is really in control here. Creamy with rich sherry notes. Soft spice with honey and soft salty notes making a nice surprising appearance. The rich fruity notes linger right to the very end.

Glengoyne 15 Years Old

Glengoyne's new 15 year old is a rich, rounded single malt, completely devoid of peat smoke thanks to air-drying the barley. It is aged in both bourbon and first-fill sherry casks, with some refill cask whisky thrown in for good measure. Hints of candied lemon and a touch of butterscotch. Creamy cereal sweetness and porridge oats. Demerara sugar. Oily, rich palate entry with notes of toffee popcorn, salted butter and hints of ground walnuts. Allspice and lemon rinds. Oaky, malty finish.

Glengoyne 18 Years Old

This 18 year old was aged in refill sherry and first-fill sherry casks. Hints of soft spice and dried peels. A little apricot, honey and vanilla. Creamy custard and dried peels. Allspice, manuka honey and hints of butterscotch. Creamy caramel and malt. Candied peels.

Glenmorangie 10 Years Old

Soft, clean and refreshing lemon sherbet and apricots, with honeyed fruit and a touch of toffee and vanilla. A little weightier on the palate with honey and malt, banana bread and subtle sweet spice.

Glenmorangie Lasanta

Elegant but full bodied maturing in American white oak ex-bourbon cask before being extra matured further in Oloroso and ex-sherry casks from Jerez. Deliciously sweet sherry flavoured sultanas, orange segments, walnut and butterscotch.

Oban 14 Years Old Single Malt

The nose is rich and smoky. The medicinal notes are quite evident with notes of the sea, seaweed, tarry ropes. There are notes of cut hay and wood smoke rising with a gentle estery sweetness. The palate is thick and full. Notes of citrus with smooth sweetness. The finish is of good length with fruit and dry oak.

Old Pulteney 12 Years Old

Deep amber with a slight pink hue. Medium to high intensity, dry with a briny hint of sea air. Sweet, floral, citrus : lemon and lime plus dry banana skin. Smooth and faintly salty.

Old Pulteney 17 Years Old

This 17 years old is comprised of 90% refill bourbon casks with the remainder being from oloroso casks. Lovely sweet aromas of butterscotch, honey and chocolate with some faint salt and oak spice on the palate. Sherbert, red berries, lemons and a little bit of rich fruit that's almost on the turn. Sugar sweetness quickly leading to dry wood, with some dried apricots and raisins. Water brings out more fresh sweet and sour fruit-plums and their stones. Long with dry wood and apples.

Royal Lochnagar 12 Years Old

Planed wood, light toffee, boat varnish. Linseed oil behind, even putty and later a lychee-like acidity. With water the acidity comes through and the nose sweetens. A pleasant fresh woodiness, followed by warm sand. Medium-bodied. Dry medium length with an attractive lingering sandalwood aftertaste.

XOP (Xtra Old Particular) Single Malt 30 Years Old

A rich and warm spiced nose, carries ginger and butterscotch infused with a lemon zest quality. The palate is still spicy with a cedar wood character, developing to tobacco and liquorice and balanced by salted caramel.

SINGLE MALT | SCOTLAND, LOWLANDS

The Lowlands produces gentle, light whiskies, often very dry and devoid of peat. Lowland whiskies are commonly referenced as feminine drams, “the Lowland Ladies”. Most of the whisky regions of Scotland, and indeed the world, there can be some crossover. Lowlands is different where the method of production differs; Lowland whiskies are triple distilled.

Auchentoshan 12 Years Old

Smooth, fresh and nutty with a golden honey appearance. It has a crème brulee smell with a burst of citrus and the signature nuttiness and green leaf of Auchentoshan. Smooth and sweet with hints of tangerine and lime. To finish, it is gingerly and slightly drying with a pleasant lingering nuttiness.

Auchentoshan Three Wood

Intense, sweet and complex with a rich golden bronze appearance. It has a blackcurrant, brown sugar, orange, plum and raisin aroma with a fruit and syrup taste. The finish is fresh and fruity with long oaky sweetness.

XOP (Xtra Old Particular) Single Grain 36 Years Old

Initially sweet and juicy with fresh sweet floral notes and dried fruits of raisin and sultana and a huge hit of sweet juicy dried apricots. Sweet milk chocolate chips running through it with some tasty white grape juice notes also.

SINGLE MALT | SCOTLAND, ISLANDS

A diverse whisky region, the proximity to the sea often proffers slightly salty, sometimes smoky whiskies. Balance is a recurring theme; sweetness and pungency in perfect harmony. A decidedly eclectic assortment of whiskies is to be found on the Islands.

Arran 14 Years Old

This 14 year old bottling is aged in ex-bourbon for the first 12 years and then the final two years in fresh bourbon casks and fresh sherry casks. This sees no peated malt. The aroma is quite floral and fruity with a touch of wool detected. As you take a nip, salted peanuts come next with honey and warm cereal. The floral and fruity notes continue on the palate with sea salt and cinnamon.

Jura Superstition

Initial gristy cereal gives way to evocative smoke and heady malt. It's quite sweet and creamy. A cereal fest on the tongue, with hints of white pepper and black forest honey with hot buttered toast. Light and oily. Medium length with cocoa and rice paper with hints of honey and spice on the tail.

Ledaig 10 Years Old

Quite light and well-balanced. There is a very soft peat with a subtle smoke. Notes of barley and malt extract with walnut and pine oil and a hint of iodine with notes of dried fruit and nuts. Medium-bodied and quite rich. Notes of spice and smoke gathering above the charred oak. The peat is quiet and dry with a touch of black pepper and earth. Medium length and slightly smoky with spice.

Ledaig 18 Years Old 1998 #11211 Old Particular (Douglas Laing)

Toasted barley, burnt oak and a whiff of summer BBQs! Well balanced smoke and sweetness, with the toasty peat coming out on top in the end. Bonfire embers and a little bit of red berry juice.

Machrie Moor Cask Strength

Toasty peat wafts up first, backed up by notes of fresh summer berries and tropical fruit. Grilled pineapple, raspberries and custard. Smoky richness persists throughout the entire palate. Lingering oak-y vanilla on the finish.

Highland Park 12 Years Old

Salted lemons, a whiff of charcoal smoke, crunchy green apples, tropical fruit chews, unripe mango, beeswax, honey, dusty wood and fruity dark chocolate. Starts off with syrup sweetness, quickly moving on to sour and creamy wood with more tropical chews, pineapple and smoked orange rind. Finishing with smoky wood, malt syrup, green pine cones and woody spice.

Highland Park 18 Years Old

A profusion of ripe floral notes and fresh blossom with a delectable fruit salad. Notes of honeyed exotic fruits with a little botrytis. Creamy and full with fruit preserves and espresso. A creaminess with cinnamon and allspice. Notes of toffee with thick black forest honey with a touch more citrus. Long and well sugared with a herbal edge.

Highland Park Harald

Dark golden, clear and bright. Vanilla, ginger root, peat smoke, dried strawberries and sandalwood. Victoria sponge, grated nutmeg with a hint of lavender. Complex and spicy with hints of peel.

Highland Park Dark Origins

Dusty baking spices and cocoa at first, cinnamon, vanilla, dates. Coffee cream Revels (possibly a couple of the orange ones too), a touch of blackcurrant/ liquorice, plus butterscotch and an interplay between milk and dark chocolate. Sweet, fragrant peat emerges with nutty melted milk chocolate and a little orange alongside some pastries. Long and sweet, a little dry chocolate, just a hint of that heather smoke, then salivating. Rounded first-fill Sherry notes come from both the European and American oak casks. This is a great chocolatey addition of a no age statement release.

Talisker 10 Years Old

Brilliant gold, powerful peat smoke with just a hint of sea-water saltiness, fresh oysters and a citrus sweetness. Full-bodied. A rich dried-fruit sweetness with clouds of smoke and strong barley-malt flavours, warming and intense. Peppery at the back of the mouth.

Talisker 18 Years Old

The nose is quite clean and fresh. There is a mixed fruity sweetness with a spicy character. The peat and smoke rise with notes of perfume and thick oak. Hints of Calvados and a touch of acidity with ground ginger. The palate is thick and rich and full-bodied. Notes of spicy, peppery oak, espresso beans and wood smoke.

Tobermory 10 Years Old

Barley sugars and toasted cereal, supported by hints of winter spice and soft oak. Salty melted butter. Quite sweet and light. There are elements of acacia honey and continuing oak from the nose. Smoke and black pepper notes rise gently with a touch of dried fruit and peels.

SINGLE MALT | SCOTLAND, CAMPBELTOWN

Campbeltown whiskies are a curious mix. Characteristics includes a defined dryness with a pungency, smoke and a solid salinity. Imagine a cross between the Lowlands and the Western Highlands with a pinch of salt thrown in for a good measure.

Glen Scotia Double Cask

Vibrant fruit emerges first followed by chewy vanilla fudge, a hint of salinity then array of oaky spices including some char. Opens with more fudge with a little dusting of powdered sugar. Powerful, oily and a touch herbaceous with some German brandy character. Sherried notes come through more on the finish. Finished in a combination of 1st-fill bourbon barrels and Pedro Ximénez sherry cask.

Glen Scotia Victoriana

Elegantly oaky with notes of toasty sugar and citrus peels, more fruit forward on the nose with dark berry juiciness at its core. Orchard fruits dusted with dark chocolate.

Hazelburn 12 Years Old

Pungent and aromatic with notes of dried fruits, plenty of sherry integration with notes of citrus, toffee and nuts. Spicy on the palate, nutty and cocoa rich, oak, coffee, gentle peat. Coffee, spices, citrus, chocolate, long finish.

Longrow

Salt and a leathery smokiness come to the fore in a maritime combination; like a Harbour Master's Jacket. Light and sweet with notes of green grapes and rhubarb, a great contrast to the nose. Then comes a big blast of smoke. That salty smokiness returns from the nose providing a deeply satisfying ending.

Longrow 18 Years Old

A double distilled, heavily peated single malt from Springbank. Apple peels and smoke. Earthy peat, damp leaves, notes of truffle, woodshed, porridge oats and soot. Peaty with notes of spicy. Very oily with hints of orange zest, pepper and chilli. Very big smoked meats and honey.

Springbank 10 Year Old Local Barley

Caramel-coated shortbread, honey, chocolate ice cream and a whiff of bonfire smoke. Mint chocolate, tangy marmalade, wafts of dusty oak and toasty peat. A hint of peanut brittle and cumin. Baking spices, burnt wood and treacle.

Springbank 10 Years Old

The nose is big-bodied with oaked aridity. The peat is present and quite pungent with an earthen rootiness. Notes of exotic fruits and a hint of salinity. The palate is full-bodied with a good helping of cereal sweetness. There is a richness to the peat, with a dark nuttiness and whirling smoke. The finish is long and crisp with a coastal tang and a trailing peat with oaked dryness.

Springbank 15 Years Old

Fragrant with a certain richness. Notes of fruit salad and a hint of caramel, pineapple, guava and passionfruit lurk. There are notes of dried leather and old ropes, a hint of toffee sweetness and some granary toast. Quite full and rich.

SINGLE MALT WHISKY | OTHER COUNTRIES

Single malt whisky is malt whisky from a single distillery, that is, whisky distilled from fermented mash made exclusively with malted grain (usually barley), as distinguished from unmalted grain. Under Scotch Whisky Regulations, a “Single Malt Scotch Whisky” must be made exclusively from malted barley, must be distilled using pot stills at a single distillery and must be aged for at least three years in oak casks of a capacity not exceeding 700 litres.

Limeburners Port Cask | AUSTRALIA

Exhibiting spice and fruit aromas when neat, a splash of water unleashes malted barley, aromas of port and honey with hints of raisins and buttery caramel.

Limeburners Sherry Cask | AUSTRALIA

This whisky is matured in 2nd-fill bourbon barrels and finished in a very old small sherry cask. Medium coloured whisky with intense and complex flavours, a full taste and a smooth finish.

Timboon “Christie’s Cut” | AUSTRALIA

Named after the famous police officer John Christie, this whisky is big and bold. At 60%, the cut has an extra long finish featuring vanilla, butterscotch and smoke.

Braunstein Danica Whisky | DENMARK

Braunstein is a relative newcomer in the world whisky landscape. It is a Danish micro-distillery and brewery located in the small town of Køge, not far from Copenhagen. Their production is mostly organic and local. The rich nose is full of white pepper, and woody, floral aromas. Also huge vanilla notes with toffee and some hints of sultanas come through. This rather thick and syrupy nectar flows onto the palate with masses of candied oranges, hot spices, caramel and some dark berries. The finish is warm and slightly grassy.

Teerenpeli Distiller’s Choice Portti | FINLAND

Portti is a port-cask-finished whisky from Finland’s Teerenpeli. Rich and aromatic with notes of eucalyptus, aniseed, red berries and wood spice.

Armorik Double Maturation | FRANCE

From the Warenghem Distillery in Brittany, France, comes a complex single malt which is firstly aged in casks made from oak grown in Brittany. Following this, the whisky is moved over to Sherry oak casks for a finishing period. A French single malt with up-front notes of citrus and apple, soon joined by salted butter, rich oak and sea breeze.

Amrut Single Malt Cask Strength | INDIA

“Amrut” means “Elixir of Life”. It has much in common with the finest whiskies of Speyside with its fruity, chocolaty and spicy notes, typical of maturation in ex-bourbon barrel. Firm, complex with ripe fruits and curcuma.

Kavalan Single Malt | TAIWAN

Fragrant and tropical fruits with floral notes, vanilla and mango. There’s mango throughout, spicy barley, gentle oak and creamy richness. A touch of allspice, vanilla and fragrant pear skin.

BLENDED WHISKY | OTHER COUNTRIES

A blended whisky is the product of blending different types of whiskies and sometimes also neutral grain spirits, colouring and flavourings. It is generally the product of mixing one or more higher-quality straight or single malt whiskies with less expensive spirits and other ingredients.

Tiger Snake Rye of the Tiger | AUSTRALIA

This is hand distilled from a mash of 60% Rye and 40% Pale Malt Barley. The rye was selected from the pristine fields on the South Coast of WA, which enjoy a cool Mediterranean climate. This Rye of the Tiger has been twice distilled in small batch copper pot stills.

K5 Premium | BHUTAN

The K5 Premium Blend Whisky was produced in 2008 to mark the auspicious year as it was the coronation year of the 5th King of Bhutan, King Jigme Khesar Namgyel Wangchuck. A harmonious blend of East and West Scotch whiskies and ends in Bhutan admixed with custom made triple distilled Grain Spirits and natural Himalayan virgin spring water to express its premium character of this blend. It has light pleasing fruitiness, with a hint of sherry and ends of with lingering taste of sweetness.

Batshit Mental Ideas | ENGLAND

Bonfire embers and smoky bacon crisps, with a touch of maple syrup. Notes of sponge cake, fragrant cereals and fruity coffee follow. Earthy peat develops smoke, cinnamon and cereals, balanced by boiled sweets and chewy raisins. Lasts for aged with barbecue char on the finish.

John Jameson | IRELAND

Matured for at least 7 years. Soft hints of vanilla on the nose with a light smooth aroma. Smooth offering of grain and honey with a slight dryness near the end.

Ichiro's Malt MWR Mizunara Wood Reserve | JAPAN

Bottled in 2010, this was crafted by Ichiro Akuto, this is a vatting of various single malts which have been aged in Japanese Mizunara oak. Honeyed and toasty, sweet and light citrus, hints of grapefruit and a sugar in a bowl, tangy. Rich, spice, fruity, tangy malt. Hints of honey and toffee apples. Abrupt, but very spicy, sweet.

Ichiro's Malt Wine Wood Reserve | JAPAN

A "Pure Malt" whisky from the Ichiro's Malt series, containing whisky from the closed Hanyu distillery and matured, vatted and bottled at the Chichibu distillery. This edition was given a finishing period in French wine casks. Chocolate orange, black liquorice and creamy malt. Red berry sweetness, oily walnut, white pepper. Lingering Sherried spices, with a little hint of chocolate.

Ichiro's Malt Double Distilleries | JAPAN

From a crackling Ichiro's Malt range, this is a vatting of whisky from both the Hanyu and Chichibu distilleries. The whisky was matured in Japanese oak, and vatted and bottled at Chichibu in 2010.

Ichiro's Malt and Grain | JAPAN

Peach and dried apricot, sweet butterscotch, vanilla cream, citrus zest, synthetic bananas and goeey malt. Toffee first and foremost, with notes of barley malt, gingerbread, tropical fruits, honeyed pipe tobacco leaves, black pepper, roasted chestnut and freshly cut hay. Medium length wit vanilla and dried tropical fruit.

Iwai Black Label | JAPAN

The nose is a little bit shy, some vanilla toasted oak notes, a touch of melon. Vanilla pound cake and lychee on the palate. Short understated finish.

Kakubin Suntory | JAPAN

Edgy and slightly bitter with grain alcohol, oak, cereals, light vanilla, grapefruit. Short, sugary sweet and watery with light honey, light pepper and ginger.

Karuizawa Club Mars | JAPAN

This texture is rather round and delicious. It is nice in the mouth and develops an interesting complexity. Fruity aroma in the nose are complemented by the appearance of pastry flavours like butter and dough, with some notes of citrus, cherry and liquorice. Very light smoky peat is still present in the background. With its complexity and sweetness and the aromatic bouquet approaching those single malts aged in sherry cask will definitely surprise you.

Taketsuru Pure Malt | JAPAN

Sherry-soaked plums, raisins and green apple slices. Honeyed cereal, black pepper and hint of barrel char. Espresso beans, milk chocolate, tobacco leaf and lingering sheried fruit. There's a slight touch of smoke as it develops. Elegant smoke continues with golden barley and a final hint of coffee.

Taketsuru 12 Years Old | JAPAN

Floral and balanced with notes of plum jam, cut herbs, rhubarb pie, vanilla ice-cream and cold coffee. Sweet and oily, apple cider, cinnamon sticks, buttery toffee, almond, salty butter, custard. Good length, creamy, notes of digestive biscuit and rhubarb crumble.

The Lucky Cat, "Ash 99" | JAPAN

Fresh fruit incense and mint. Refreshing aroma reminiscent of herbs feel marmalade and orange peel on top. There is a creamy sweet aroma feel of vanilla and cookies from the back.

Clan Gold 18 Years Old | SCOTLAND

This aged spirits produce spectacular golden amber with brilliant clarity. The nose is complex with a blend combining vanilla and spices creating a silky mouthfeel with rich layers of fruitcake, honey and delicate oak.

Monkey Shoulder | SCOTLAND

An elegant, stylish nose of marmalade, Crema Catalana, cocoa and malt. Plenty of vanilla and a sprinkling of winter spice alongside a mouth-watering hint of aniseed. Very malty, creamy delivery with a suggestion of berry fruit. Juicy toasted barley, cloves and butterscotch. Manuka honey, hot-buttered-toast and dried apricot develop. Medium length, spicy oak and a hint of peppermint on the tail.

Westland American Oak | USA

The initially nose provides lemon and orange custard backed by freshly produced waffle cone. A rich creaminess emerge with crème brûlée and chocolate custard while a hint of jasmine hides just beneath the surface.

Westland Sherry Oak | USA

The nose offers an immediate richness with honey dipped oatmeal raisin cookies, maple syrup follows closely behind, drizzled over banana pancake. The palate offers some kiwi with more maple and raisin syrup notes.

GLENFARCLAS

Since 1865 Glenfarclas has been owned and managed by just one family, the Grants of Glenfarclas.

On the 8th of June 1865, John Grant acquired the tenancy for the Rechlerich Farm at Ballindalloch and as part of the transaction purchased the Glenfarclas Distillery.

Glenfarclas is one of the few distilleries of Scotland to remain family owned and managed.

Now in the hands of the fifth and sixth generation of the family, The Grant remain committed to the vision of creating the best quality single highland malt scotch whisky, in the traditional Speyside style.

The Family Casks are a unique collection of the best single casks from the distillery's warehouse. Launched in 2007 the collection initially comprised of 43 single cask bottlings, with one cask from every year from 1952 to 1994.

Glenfarclas continues to offer as wide a range of consecutive vintage dated single casks as possible, Hence since 2007 there have been further releases, to replace casks which have been sold out, and to extend the range to include vintages up to the year 2000.

The Family Casks are bottled at cask strength and natural colour, allowing you to explore the subtle differences between casks and the history of family owned Glenfarclas.

YAMAZAKI

Yamazaki is located in Shimamoto, Osaka, Japan.
Opened in 1923 and owned by Suntory, it was Japan's first commercial whisky distillery.

Yamazaki Distiller's Reserve

This single malt from the Yamazaki Distiller is jam packed with superb red berry notes, gained from the whisky being matured in Bordeaux wine casks and sherry cask. It also features malt matured in Mizunara casks, adding subtle fragrant oak notes with spicy but sweet cinnamon acting as a final flourish.

Yamazaki 12 Years Old

Smooth and soft with good sweetness and winter spice. Good body with plenty of nut oils; a pleasant floral character with tropical fruit.

Yamazaki 18 Years Old

An award winning Japanese single malt. Yamazaki's legendary 18 Years Old earned a Gold at 2007 ISC and a Double Gold at 2005 San Francisco World Spirits Competition. Medium body with green notes and an earthy note, a floral character with zest and sherry peels.

Yamazaki 25 Years Old

Yamazaki astonishing 25 Years Old aged in the finest sherry casks for the entire maturation period to produce a fragrant, sherry, fruity and oaky masterpiece.

Yamazaki 2014 Limited Edition

Composed of three single malts: a single malt aged 20 years in sherry casks, a single malt aged 20 years in pot wine casks, a young single malt aged in bourbon barrels.

Yamazaki 2015 Limited Edition

This is a blend of several single malts distilled and aged in Yamazaki. Sweet mango, strawberries, sweet oak, honey and apples are dictated on the nose. On the palate there's walnut, green grass and malt with tropical fruits. Very light smoke, lingering oak with a medium finish.

HAKUSHU

Hakushu distillery is a Japanese whisky distillery. It is owned by the Suntory group and situated in the Toribara locality of the former town of Hakushu, in the Yamanashi Prefecture, Chubu region, Japan.

Hakushu Distiller's Reserve

From the Hakushu distillery in the foothills of Mount Kaikomagatake comes their Distiller's Reserve single malt whisky, a no-age-statement expression, that captures the smoky, herbaceous characteristics. The herbs are very up front with this one. Peppermint, pine and pleasant grassy notes. Cucumber and melon round out the nose. All the notes on the nose swim effortlessly through the palate, the mint developing sweeter notes as it goes on. A waft of smoke appears during the long finish.

Hakushu 12 Years Old

Toasted barley, seed and nut loaf, chopped almonds and a little bit of barrel char. Hints of milk chocolate and dried grass bring sweetness. Much more fruit on the palate, rich, herbaceous and grassy with a waft of smoke along the way. Quite short, though enjoyable with orange peel and a touch of minerals.

CHITA

Founded in 1972 in Aichi Prefecture, the Chita distillery located near the village of the same name and is exclusively dedicated to the grain whisky distillation. Suntory was rather quiet about Chita distillery even though it's an essential element for the production of its blended whiskies which are among the best in the world over the last 10 years.

The Chita Single Grain

It is a vatting that consists of at least 10 different grain whisky components that have been matured in different cask types including American white oak casks, Spanish oak casks and ex-wine casks. The nose is soft, floral and quite perfumy at the beginning, then slowly lemon and honey flavours develop, followed by caramel mango notes. The palate is medium-bodied and smooth, very sweet and chewy.

CHICHIBU

The Chichibu distillery is small, with only nine full-time employees. It is owned by Venture Whisky which was founded in 2004 in Chichibu, Saitama, just outside of Tokyo, hence its name. The distillery which specializes in single malt whisky was the first whisky distillery built in Japan since the 1970s and became operational in 2008. It stands on a small hill in the outskirts of Chichibu, a city of medium size with a population of about 70,000.

Ichiro's Malt Chichibu On The Way (Bottled 2015)

This is a 2015 bottling of single malt from Japan's small but fantastic Chichibu distillery, released as part of their On The Way series. Only 10700 bottles. Herbaceous at first, though soon enough hints of caramel and tinned peaches arrive. Baking spices, apples turnovers and slowly growing notes of nutty malt. Dried apple chips and hints of sawdust.

Ichiro's Malt Chichibu "Chibidaru"

Chibidaru- Japanese for "cute casks" – are small casks that give lots of flavor quickly. Bursting with heady aromas of lemon and orange peel- like walking through a citrus grove in early autumn with fresh green apples, enriched by sweet milk chocolate notes. Fruity with lip-smacking green apple notes combined with perfumed apricots and peaches. There's some bitter-orange marmalade in there along with earthy spiciness of cardamom and coriander seed. Very clean and refreshing as the fruit gently fades.

Ichiro's Malt Chichibu The Peated 2015 Cask Strength

Ichiro's Malt Chichibu "The Peated" 2015 is the third and strongest edition of Chichibu's peated expressions to date. Limited to 5980 bottles, each individually numbered. Very smoky, buttery, vanilla, cinnamon, rosemary and pears. Sweet vanilla, black pepper, citrus with pink grapefruit notes, floral, dark chocolate. Long, smoky, peaty yet creamy.

Ichiro's Malt Chichibu Single Cask #2650

From its Mizunara wash backs and small stills with steep lyne arms to the fact that the mashman uses a wooden paddle to stir the mash, Chichibu is a hands-on distillery with quality as an intrinsic focus. With the ground now broken on a blending room, and an off-site cooperage, Ichiro Akuto's distillery, formed from the ashes of his grandfather's Hanyu distillery, is one of the finest producers in Japan. Distilled in December 2010 and bottled in October 2016

HIBIKI

Hibiki is a premium blended whisky from Japanese distiller Suntory.

It is a premium-category product and has won several awards.

“Hibiki” means “resonance” or “echo” in Japanese.

Hibiki Harmony

Generous fruit continues to the palate with oranges and apricots in abundance, a little peppery spice but very soft. The spiciness taking over from the fruit and lingers along with a little barrel char finish.

Hibiki Master Select

Citrus blossom, mango and juicy raisins. A slight touch of vanilla-rich oak. Chocolate orange, creamy wood notes, dried apricot and sultanas, cinnamon. Plum and ginger, brown sugar and milk chocolate.

Hibiki 12 Years Old

An exquisite 12 years old blended Japanese whisky. Partly matured in plum liqueur barrels resulting juicy marmalade with chunks of ranges, cooked apples dusted with cinnamon. On the palate there's crushed almonds, stewed fruits like clove-studded oranges, bright and flavoursome with crisp apple and citrus.

Hibiki 17 Years Old

Quite full. There are notes of honey and wax, resin and oak. There are notes of gentle smoke and cacao, hints of cooked fruit and a nutty note. Sweet and rich. There are crisp notes of mixed peels, raisin and custard with a little zest and plenty of oak. Long with notes of oak and cocoa and sherried peels.

Hibiki 21 Years Old

This was named World's Best Blended Whisky in 2013 World Whisky Award. Scoring 96 points in 2014 Jim Murray's Whisky Bible as well. Sweet, caramelized nuts with some lemon acidity, blackcurrants and pears with vanilla, dark toffee and rich sherry spice. Long finish with a hint of smoke. “Unbelievably balanced, and dangerously drinkable!”

Hibiki 30 Years Old

Composed of malt and grain whiskies matured at least 30 years in oak barrels, the Hibiki 30 Years Old will seduce lovers of whisky with its deep complexity and incredible maturity.

HIBIKI MOUNT FUJI

To Commemorate Mount Fuji the highest peak in Japan getting added to the UNESCO World Cultural Heritage List in 2013, Suntory released this special edition. The Hibiki whose bottle always has 24 facets representing the 24 seasons of the Japan lunar calendar has been redecorated with a painting of a scenic view of Mount Fuji.

Hibiki Mount Fuji 21 Years Old (1st Edition)

Full of grace, tenderly unfolding a calm essence. Bronze amber with cooked fruit, blackberry, ripe banana and caramel. Sandalwood, honeycomb, dried apricot and Mizunara on the palate with long, rich and incense finish.

Hibiki Mount Fuji 21 Years Old (2nd Edition)

Sweet caramelized nuts, some lemon acidity, blackcurrants and pears with vanilla, dark toffee and rich sherry spice. An endless medley of gourmet flavours of raisins, prunes, dried figs, apricot jam and chestnut all coated with spicy notes of gingerbread and cinnamon.

MARS SHINSHU

Sandwiched between Japan's soaring Southern Alps and the towering Central Alps, at just over 2600 feet, Mars Shinshu is Japan's highest whisky distillery. The Hombo family have been distilling for more than a century and they added whisky to their repertoire in 1949. Back then the distillery was located in Kagoshima Prefecture on the southern most island of Kyushu. Until 1984, it was the southern most whisky made in Japan, which ended with the Hombo clan moving the distillery to the idyllic alpine setting of Miyada village in southern Nagano Prefecture. They chose this site for its cool temps, which slowed maturation, and the plentiful, soft, granite filtered snowmelt fed aquifers.

3 Years Old Komagatake 2011

One of the first whiskies to be released after the revival of the Shinshu Mars distillery, which stopped production in 1992 and in 2011 started reproducing. Distilled in 2011 and matured in a sherry and American white oak casks, this expression is bottled as a 3 years old at cask strength.

Mars Komagatake Shinano Tanpopo- Nature of Shinshu

The 2014 distillation of malt whisky vatting in new Bourbon and American white oak barrels, mixed with Sherry cask of malt aged more than 20 years old. It is the single malt whisky of soft and gorgeous scent with the flavour of ripe fruits from the long-aged malt in sherry cask. For the printing of the label, "ShinanoTanpopo" is an art work of Japanese plant miniaturist called Nomura Youko.

Komagatake 1986 30 Years Old

A very rare single cask release from The Shinshu Mars distillery, which stopped production in 1992. This is a single malt whisky and has been aged for 30 years in an American White Oak barrel. Shinshu Mars restarted production recently in 2011. One of only 1137 bottles.

NIKKA

The Founder , Masataka Taketsuru established Nikka Whisky in 1934 and built its first distillery in Yoichi, Hokkaido.

Yoichi 10 Years Old

Plenty of fruit notes- peach stands out in particular, ripe, vibrant and subtly floral. Then there's rich vanilla custard, peat smoke and a hint of nutmeg spice. Oily and sweet with peat smoke following swiftly afterwards. Light oak and developing fruit notes beneath. Appealing oak lasts on the finish.

Yoichi 15 Years Old

Gentle and creamy with light fruits and a little nutty development. Quite sweet with notes of subdued peat resulting a long and beautifully bittersweet.

Yoichi 20 Years Old

A powerful cask strength 20 years old single malt that previously bested some very high-profile Scottish malt at a blind tasting in 2003 and received 95 points in Jim Murray's Whisky Bible. Rich and curious with notes of coal gas, salt, cedar, honey and vanilla cream. Long and gentle sherry with a faint herbal note.

Yoichi 1980's Single Malt

A rare and limited edition "decade-release" whisky from Yoichi distillery. This is an exquisite blend using malts from 1980 to 1989, making it the oldest expression of Yoichi in current times. Strong and thick bodied. Cocoa, buttery, biscuits sweet, peaty, salty. Long and smooth for the finish.

Yoichi 1990's Single Malt

A rare and limited edition "decade-release" whisky from Yoichi distillery. This is an exquisite blend using malts from 1990 to 1999 and bottled at cask strength. Sweet, dried fruits, sherry. Creamy, cocoa. Smooth and chocolate aftertaste.

Yoichi 2000's Single Malt

A rare and limited edition "decade-release" whisky from Yoichi distillery. This is an exquisite blend using malts from 2000 to 2009 and bottled at cask strength. Sweet, grainy and malty on the nose. Smoky, bourbon, citrusy notes with a medium long finish.

Miyagikyo NAS

Full flavoured, rich. Develops aromas of malted barley, exotic fruit(banana), liquorice and camphor. Notes of burnt wood and ash progressively settle over the aromatic palette. Elegant and the mid palate also delivers plenty of energy and as it draws to a dose, fresh tobacco leaves and coconut intertwine to create a natural symphony of aromas, long and soft.

Miyagikyo 15 Years Old

As you work your way along the Miyagikyo range, you will witness the beautiful fruity, floral balance become fuller and more complex. Jim Murray awarded this a whopping 92 points! It is an incredible malt with toffee and generically fruits but not too heavy and very pleasing. It gives you an intense flavour of tar and incense smoke on the palate.

Nikka Coffey Grain

Bourbon like vanilla and corn notes with a herbal hint of chamomile. Sweet, fruity flavours of melon, grapefruit and thick syrup, balanced by crunchy biscuits and fresh vanilla.

Nikka Coffey Malt

Made of 100% barley that is distilled in a Coffey. Rich flavour and a surprisingly soft texture. Fresh and clean on the nose, robust and spicy on the palate, finishes with a harmonious blend of dense spices, rich oak, lemon and orange notes.

SPIRITS

BOURBON

Bourbon is a type of American whiskey: a barrel-aged distilled spirit made primarily from corn. The name is ultimately derived from the French Bourbon dynasty, although it is disputed whether Bourbon County in Kentucky or Bourbon Street

Maker's Mark

A wheated bourbon whiskey from the heart of Kentucky. Fruity and rich. There are lovely notes of spiced honey and mixed peels, a little malmsey, hazelnut and a touch of cut fruit with toasty oak providing a backbone. There are notes of rye and spice, barley malt, a little nut oil with butterscotch and vanilla.

Willett Rye

Lively with youthful notes. A little burn which would be expected at this proof. The floral and botanicals are here as well. A little menthol comes forth, along with fresh cut grass and spice.

TEQUILA / MEZCAL

Agave, the plant from which tequila is distilled, played a much larger role than just being the source of an alcoholic drink. Its leaves were used for a hemp-like fiber to make mats, clothing, rope and paper.

Don Amado Rustico Mezcal

Don Amado Rustico is made in Santa Catarina Minas, Oaxaca by mezcalero Germán Bonifacio Arellanes. The same distillery also produces Mina Real Mezcal. This mezcal carries a bit of smoke, but it doesn't overwhelm the fruit and floral notes that mix nicely with notes of minerals and clay. It is silky on the palate with a vibrant finish.

Milargo Silver

Milargo (translated to "miracle") is a tequila which uses only agaves grown on the estate of Jua de la Torre, now a partner in the brand. His agaves were unaffected by the bacteria which caused a shortage in agave and tequila production in the mid 90's. Most tequilas are distilled twice, but Milargo is distilled three times, twice in a pot still and once in a stainless steel column still.

RUM

Rum is the alcoholic beverage produced by distilling fermented sugarcane juice and the waste products of sugar making. It was first produced in the Caribbean in the early to mid-17th century.

Brugal 1888 Ron Gran Reserva Familiar

A very special old rum from Brugal. This was twice distilled and aged in American oak before a finish in Spanish oak sherry casks. A dark rum from the Dominican Republic. Toasty and sweet with charred oak, sultanas, dates and honey with a touch of gentle smoke. Buttery and sweet with butterscotch, Demerara sugar, manuka honey and wafts of wood smoke. Toffee apple and salty butter.

Diplomatico

The glossy, deep copper colour is a pleasure to behold, minimally reticent with subsequent passes yielding a slow cascade of dessert styled aromatics opening as raw sugar / molasses with aeration adding sponge cake, dates and vanilla slice. Finish is gently warming, finely balanced.

Havana Club 7 Years Old

Sweet and buttery with intermingled notes of toffee, honeycomb and coffee, a little spice and dried peels with notes of orchard fruits and biscuits. Full and rich with notes of cigar box, particularly the cedar wood thereof, guava and banana leaf with more toffee. Fruity, creamy finish. Lots of complexity.

Zacapa

Very sweet and nutty, honey and chocolate. Dark brown sugar, gentle smoke, pipe tobacco. Dark brown sugar, molasses, rounded. Thick and medium length, hint of smoke.

APERITIF

An aperitif is an alcoholic beverage usually served before a meal to stimulate the appetite.

Campari

A 19th century bitters in Milan by Gaspere Campari. It is made by infusing bitter herbs , plants and fruit in alcohol and water.

Carpano Antica

Bouquet of vanilla with spicy, citrusy and dried fruit notes of almond, raisin and cloves. Rich vanilla taste that picks up the aromas from the nose.

Cynar

Sweet and bitter with a hint of rust on the nose. The taste is initially light & sugary in stark contrast to Cynar's dark colour. The finish is bitter, akin to a light espresso finish.

Fernet Branca

Aromatic, bitter, earthy with orange saffron and other lighter scents like myrrh in the background. Packed with peppermint, menthol and a punch of spice.

Mancino Chinato

A blend of the three Mancino vermouthe - Secco, Bianca and Rosso with Barbera d'Asti D.O.C.G and pure quinine from the calisaya bark. It contains all the hallmarks of the Mancino vermouthe portfolio; it lingers with a rich , deep and red bitter wine pallet makes a notable digestive or aperitif.

Mancino Rosso

This is part of a new brand of vermouthe ,a drink where you don't often see new brands popping up left and right. This is their Rosso Amarantho , made with a blend of 38 botanicals, a recipe created by Giancarlo Mancino himself.

Mancino Secco

A herbal, slightly nutty white vermouthe made to a recipe created by renowned bartender Giancarlo Mancino using 19 botanicals, including Sage, Marjoram and Oregano.

Punt e Mes

The initial taste is one of sweetness, characterized by an intriguing accent of orange. This is followed by the characteristically bitter taste of the quina and ends on a sweet note.

Rinomato

Ails from a collaboration between renowned bartender Giancarlo Mancino and his American partner, Fasel Shenstone. Born from the infusion of hand-selected botanicals into a distillate, Rinomato exhibits rich aromas of orange peel, vanilla, gentian root, cinchona bark and wormwood. An initial sweetness on the palate carries those aromas into a long and ever-intensifying bitter finish that remains in perfect balance with texture and spice.

SCOTLAND, CAMPBELTOWN

Campbeltown is one of the 5 areas in Scotland categorized as a distinct malt whisky producing region and is home to the Campbeltown single malts. At one point it had over 30 distilleries and proclaimed itself "the whisky capital of the world". Today only 3 active distilleries remain in Campbeltown which are Glen Scotia, Glengyle and Springbank.

KARUIZAWA

Karuizawa is one of the legendary whisky distilleries in Japan, founded in 1955.

Karuizawa is the smallest distillery in Japanese however its ambition is big. Karuizawa adopted the top standard in making of whisky using the famous barley "Golden Promise", distilled in small batches and aged their spirits in finest Spanish sherry casks that made Karuizawa malt perfection in quality.
